DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 1, the phrase " particularly " renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Claim 11 recites the limitation "the former". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 2, 4, 7 and 10-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Beki (DE10044930).

Beki discloses a roll-over protection device for a motor vehicle comprising a roll bar (1), having a U-shaped design and a transverse yoke (2) and lateral limbs (3,4), while leaving a loading opening (between reference numerals 10 in figure 1) unobstructed and extending such that it essentially spans the width of the vehicle. The lateral limbs can be displaced along fixed guiding devices (8, 17) in order to transfer the roll bar (1) out of a lowered non-operational position into a raised supporting position, wherein a central retaining and activating device (5, 7) is provided for the roll bar (1), the device being controlled by an actuator and/or a device (17) that synchronizes the displacement of the limbs (3, 4) of the roll bar (1) along the guiding devices (8, 15) is provided. The transverse yoke (2) and the limbs (3, 4) of the roll bar (1) are designed as a single piece. The central retaining and activating device (7) is arranged in a cross bar (6) that stretches essentially parallel to the transverse yoke (2) of the roll bar (1) in the installation position above the loading opening. Beki discloses a spring drive mechanism which transfers the roll bar out of a non-operational position into a raised supporting position. Beki discloses guiding devices (6a) of the limbs wherein a pre-mountable module is formed. The pre-mountable module comprises a torsion profile that extends in the vehicle transverse direction in the installation position above the loading opening and can be connected tightly to a vehicle body.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 3, 5, 6, 8 and 9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
